

The Rules of Common Sense

I agree to conduct myself and my Conscious Business according to the highest standards of honesty, integrity and good judgment.

I accept full responsibility for my behavior and the way I conduct my business.

I will present Unlimited Network, and its products and services in a realistic and truthful way, and I will not make unauthorized claims or misleading statements to obtain a sale or to sponsor Members.

I will make every effort, in reason, to help those within my Support Line to be successful. I understand that this is necessary for my personal and my global goals.

I will fulfill all obligations associated with sponsoring other Members, such as training, motivating and supporting.

I will become familiar with and abide by local, state and federal statutes that may govern my business Support System and/or private practice.

I will become familiar with and abide by Unlimited Network Policies.

Unlimited Network is a creative and pioneering Support System company. Unlimited Network strives to make its products, services, and opportunities of benefit to all. Violation of these Policies endangers the status as an Independent Member of Unlimited Network, as well as the integrity of Unlimited Network. I understand that following these Policies is the basis for my successful relationship and business with Unlimited Network and prospective participants and Unlimited Network sponsored modalities clients.
